

Mary Tomlinson
Consultant, Speaker, Facilitator, Author

Mary is a high energy business consultant, speaker, coach and facilitator with a passion for purpose and transformational change.

She has been President of On-Purpose Partners for over 20 years specializing in organizational culture, customer service, branding, team building, and leadership development for individuals, businesses, and non-profits.

She spent 18 years as an executive with the Walt Disney Company as a:

- Brand Director developing marketing strategies for Disney resorts and theme parks.
- Director of “Yellow Shoes” Disney’s internal ad agency managing 5,000 projects; $130 million budget.
- Director of the former Disney Institute with 800 employees, 100 training programs and a $65 million budget.

As an author, she has published a variety of articles and her two books - Facilitation Made Easy and Wholehearted Purpose – Women Discovering Their One-Of-A-Kind Design.

She serves on two non-profit organizations – as co-founder of Professional Christian Women and Board Chair for Your CenterPeace focused on healthy marriages.

She lives in Wake Forest, NC with her husband of 43 years and enjoys the adventures of her two grown children and four grandchildren.

www.marytomlinson.com 919.529.2705 mary@marytomlinson.com